CLASSIFIEDS

For a change of pace, we are giving you an overview of all the venues participating in the Camel Club Program. Take time to check-out these hot spots. Next week, things will be back to normal. (Meanwhile, define normal.)

Babyland

A brilliantly decorated bar with an upbeat staff and great East Village location. The front of the place is called Cafe Love 22, where deserts and coffees are served. Behind this cafe is Babyland, with two floors, a pool table, jukebox, and stage. Call for hand schedule.

81 Avenue A
473-7484

Bob

Small, comfortable, and always crowded. A friendly mix of Lower East Side hipsters and bar-hopping trendies. There is usually a DJ providing background to mugging. Great bar staff.

235 Eldridge Street
777-0638

Don Hills

Always crowded but different crowd each night. Dancing, live bands, and great people in a comfortable, grungy atmosphere.

511 Greenwich Street
218-2650

Cafe Tabac

A must-stop for the jet set, always filled with the fabulous folk. A place to eat, drink, and be seen.

232 East 9th Street
764-7072

Flowers

Three floors of beauty. The ground floor restaurant features a modern American menu and comfortable wicker chairs. The second floor is a jumping bar/lounge with a pool table. Dining on the roof is wonderful.

21 West 17th Street
691-8888

Frederick's

This place gives you the feeling of being at a private party in someone's upscale home. A highly stylized bar/lounge.

26 East 64th Street
752-1037

Casa La Femme

You've just landed inside a genie's bottle - it's comfortable, exciting, and the food is great. Very Mediterranean, superbly executed, and oh-so-friendly.

150 Wooster Street
505-0005

Continental

A no-frills, straight-ahead rock-n-roll venue. Loud, messy and inexpensive good times with multiple bands nightly.

25 3rd Avenue
529-6974

Doc Holliday's

It's country-n-western music, good ol' American fare, reasonable prices, and a pool table.

141 Avenue A
529-0512

Eros

Very elegant Greek/Middle Eastern restaurant. Patron includes a mix of Sutton Place and downtown hipsters. Great great food - great, great staff.

1079 7th Avenue
